Catalogues of which, will be distributed to the Gentlemen of the several Colleges, and Halls in Cambridg. 1686.

TO THE READER.

THIS Library of Mr. Sedgewick will be exposed to Sale by way of Auction which hitherto hath after many Experiments, proved beneficial to the Buyers, and profitable to the Proprietors; and although different Apprehensions have been amongst some Gentlemen about the way, it would be easie, was it necessary, beyond all Imaginable scruple, to demonstrate its real usefulness. In short, this Sale is to gratifie the Gentlemen of the University of Cambridge (amongst which, Mr. Sedgewick had many Friends) and upon due Consideration, it would have been thought unhandsome to deny their request, having at present no other, or perhaps better way to testifie their respects to his memory, than by resolving to purchase some of his Books: And when the Innocency of this Essay is considered, designed for no other ends than the above mentioned, I hope I may reasonably promise to my self (notwithstanding the misapprehensions of some few persons, as to the Method and the Manager) a moderate success for the Use of his worthy Relict.

This Sale will begin at the Black Swan, or Three-Tuns at Trumpington, on Monday the 29th of this Instant March, 1686. from the Hours of Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from One in the Afternoon to Five in the Evening, and there continue daily till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.
